

Villa Komarca

Region: Zadar Sleeps: 12 - 14

Overview

Nestled in the picturesque town of Starigrad, at the foot of the majestic Velebit mountain, Villa Komarca is a newly built haven of luxury, a mere 80 metres from the glistening Adriatic. With its modern design and spacious accommodations, this villa is tailored for a maximum of twelve guests (with an additional two guests accommodated on a sofa bed), making it the perfect accommodation choice for large families with children or a group of friends yearning for opulent relaxation. Spread across 280 m2 of living space and set within a 600 m2 property, Villa Komarca beckons as an idyllic retreat, only 200 metres away from the nearest pebble beach.

As you step into the villa, the ground floor welcomes you with a modern kitchen, equipped for culinary delights with high-end appliances and a breakfast with additional seating, a dining area with large table and chairs, and a spacious living room adorned with sofas, a TV, and a PlayStation for the younger guests. The upper floor unveils six bedrooms, each boasting a double bed, en-suite bathroom, and a terrace for indulging in morning coffee while taking in the breathtaking views.

Stepping outside, the spacious outdoor terrace takes centre stage, featuring a heated 40 m2 pool, perfect for leisurely swims. Adjacent to the pool, a lounge area beckons relaxation, complete with sun loungers on the sun deck. The terrace is crowned by a barbecue and an outdoor summer kitchen, shaded seating beneath pine trees—a perfect spot for alfresco family meals.

For a touch of romance, evenings in the jacuzzi with a glass of wine or the soul-soothing sauna offer serenity, and the villa also caters to practical needs, with a washing machine, separate toilet, and a sofa bed for additional guests. Families with children are accommodated with high chairs and a crib, ensuring convenience for guests of all ages.

Villa Komarca also extends a warm welcome to furry friends, allowing up to 2 pets with prior arrangement and payment. The fenced yard encompasses six parking spaces and an electric charger, reflecting the villa's commitment to modern convenience.

In this sublime haven, Villa Komarca promises the dream holiday you've longed for—an escape from the mundane, an opportunity to relax, rejuvenate, and, above all, revel in the sheer joy of life!

Location & Local Information

Nestled in the charming town of Starigrad at the base of the enchanting Velebit mountain, Villa Komarca isn't just a luxurious retreat but also finds itself in an ideal holiday hotspot. Situated a mere 80 metres from the crystal-clear Adriatic, the villa offers guests an unparalleled view of the sea, setting the stage for a vacation that seamlessly blends relaxation and adventure.

For those seeking sun-soaked days near the sea, the villa is conveniently located just 200 metres from a pebble beach. This provides an excellent opportunity for beachcombing, swimming in the refreshing waters, or embarking on underwater explorations to discover the marine depths. The proximity to the sea ensures that guests can effortlessly weave the beach into their daily itinerary.

Nature enthusiasts will find the nearby Paklenica National Park to be a haven of exploration. With its hiking trails and climbing spots, the park is a perfect escape for those craving outdoor adventures. Movie buffs, particularly fans of the Wild West hero Winnetou, can delve into the nearby museum dedicated to this iconic character, adding a touch of cinematic nostalgia to their holiday.

Just under an hour's drive away, the urban centre of Zadar beckons with its rich tapestry of cultural and historical monuments. From the Roman Forum, one of Europe's largest preserved forums, to the 9th-century Church of St. Donatus, Zadar is a treasure trove for history aficionados. The city's charm extends to numerous churches spanning Romanesque, Gothic, and Renaissance periods, providing a journey through time for culture lovers.

Guests can also explore the historical town of Nin, a stone's throw away, with its own cultural heritage and a picturesque landscape. Whether it's a hike in nature, a dip in the sea, or a stroll through historical wonders, the location of Villa Komarca ensures that guests have a plethora of options to craft their perfect holiday.

In this vibrant and diverse setting, Villa Komarca isn't just a luxurious accommodation choice—it's a gateway to a holiday filled with sun, sea, culture, and adventure, catering to the varied interests of its guests.
