

Coach House at Good Hope

Region: Jamaica Sleeps: 8 - 14

Overview

Nestled within the heart of Jamaica's serene countryside, The Coach House at Good Hope is more than just a villa; it's a sanctuary for families and friends seeking a tranquil escape from the bustling world outside. Imagine stepping into a time warp, where Jamaica unfolds in its purest form, reminiscent of decades past – a place where life moves at a leisurely pace, where simplicity reigns, and kindness is the currency of hospitality.

Set amidst 2000 acres of lush farmstead, citrus groves, and swaying coconut palms, The Coach House embodies the essence of rustic elegance. With its cut-stone architecture blending seamlessly into the landscape, this 7-bedroom country retreat offers a haven for those seeking both togetherness and solitude.

Step inside, and you're greeted by a sense of timeless charm. The living spaces beckon with warmth and comfort – from the inviting lounge area adorned with arched entrances and limestone floors to the airy dining area where meals are shared family-style, every corner whispers stories of a bygone era. The kitchen, a culinary haven equipped for the most discerning chefs, invites guests to explore the flavours of Jamaica's rich culinary heritage.

As night falls, retreat to one of the seven contemporary bedrooms, each a sanctuary of comfort and tranquillity. From the ground-level suites exuding old-world charm to the private garden-level retreat perfect for young adults, every space is designed for restful slumber. En-suite bathrooms, ceiling fans, and air conditioning ensure a blissful night's sleep, while panoramic views of the plantation and Cockpit country offer a breathtaking backdrop to awaken to.

Outside, the allure of Jamaican paradise awaits. A 50-foot infinity pool tempts guests to take a refreshing dip, while an open-air dining terrace sets the stage for al-fresco feasts under the stars. For those seeking adventure, guided river walks and horseback rides through the estate's verdant trails offer glimpses of nature's splendour. Just a stone's throw away lies Good Hope's private beach clubhouse, a tranquil haven where white sands meet calm waters, inviting guests to while away the day basking in the sun or partaking in a myriad of water sports.

With a full complement of staff attending to every need, from a dedicated cook to a knowledgeable butler, The Coach House at Good Hope promises not just a getaway but an unforgettable journey through Jamaica's rich tapestry of history, nature, and beauty. Whether it's a family reunion, a corporate retreat, or a romantic escape, this is where memories are made, and stories are woven into the fabric of time. Welcome to The Coach House – where every moment is a celebration of life's simple pleasures.

Location & Local Information

Located in the picturesque parish of Trelawny, Jamaica, The Coach House at Good Hope is more than just a villa; it's a gateway to a world of natural wonders and cultural treasures waiting to be explored. Situated on the sprawling 18th-century Good Hope Estate, this charming retreat offers guests an unparalleled opportunity to immerse themselves in Jamaica's rich history and vibrant landscapes.

Surrounded by lush green hills and the majestic Martha Brae River winding through its heart, Good Hope Estate spans over 2000 acres of pristine wilderness, citrus orchards, and coconut groves. Step outside the villa, and you're greeted by the sights and sounds of an untouched paradise – from the verdant valleys of the Cockpit country to the tranquil waters of the Martha Brae.

For adventure seekers, the estate offers a plethora of activities to suit every taste. Embark on a guided river walk through the lush jungle, where hidden waterfalls and exotic wildlife await around every bend. For those craving a taste of adrenaline, horseback riding and zip-lining adventures promise thrills amidst the canopy tops.

But the allure of Good Hope extends far beyond its natural splendours. History buffs will delight in exploring the estate's historic Great House, a testament to Jamaica's colonial past, where guided tours offer insights into centuries-old traditions and customs. And for those seeking a taste of Jamaica's famed hospitality, the estate's private beach clubhouse beckons with its warm sands, azure waters, and a host of water sports activities, from paddleboarding to boogie boarding.

Venture beyond the estate, and you'll discover a treasure trove of attractions waiting to be uncovered. From the vibrant markets of Falmouth, where local artisans showcase their talents, to the cascading waterfalls of Dunn's River, where the waters beckon with their ethereal beauty, the wonders of Jamaica are yours to explore.

And after a day of adventure, return to the comfort of The Coach House, where a dedicated staff awaits to pamper you with the finest Jamaican cuisine and hospitality. Whether it's savouring a traditional Jamaican meal under the stars or simply unwinding by the infinity pool, The Coach House at Good Hope promises an experience unlike any other – where every moment is a celebration of Jamaica's timeless allure. Welcome to paradise.
