

Villa Altaba

Region: Gran Canaria Sleeps: 6

Overview

Villa Altaba is a chic and modern family home spread out over two floors. Nestled in the heart of an exclusive housing development on Gran Canaria's South Coast, this house is the ideal base for those wishing to visit nearby towns and beaches, yet also enjoy some peace and privacy.

Villa Altaba is a sophisticated three-bedroom house, representing the epitome of modern luxury as a new build within an exclusive private development. Spanning two floors, the ground floor exudes brightness and airiness, seamlessly connecting to the garden through expansive doors. The living area features an inviting L-shaped sofa and a flatscreen TV, flowing into the well-equipped contemporary kitchen—a social space perfect for both cooking and entertaining.

The three delightful bedrooms, each adorned with decorative features and crisp linens, boast en-suite shower rooms. The ground floor hosts one of the double rooms, while the first floor accommodates two more. The master room on the first-floor grants access to a gorgeous terrace, and its bathroom showcases a beautiful internal courtyard overlooked by a shower. Additionally, this floor houses a charming twin en-suite room, perfect for the kids.

Stepping outside, the garden becomes a tranquil sanctuary with high walls ensuring privacy. The pool offers a refreshing oasis, complemented by a covered dining table, inviting outside sofas, and sun loungers. Villa Altaba harmoniously combines ultra-modern design with comfort, providing a perfect retreat for those seeking a contemporary and serene escape.

Close to the house, guests can reach the beautiful marina, the private beach, shops, yachting club and large communal pool which are part of this elegant residential area.

Outside of the estate itself, you can also walk to a number of sandy beaches and access incredible towns by car. Playa del Ingles and Maspalomas are just some of the towns you can reach, each of these are packed with shops, cafes, restaurants and attractions and are under 8km away!

Nature-lovers are also well-provided for on a trip to Gran Canaria; you can visit the famous sand dunes, enjoy scenic coastal walks and take boat trips out to sea while holidaying here.

Location & Local Information

Villa Altaba is the perfect setting for a holiday to the southern region of Gran Canaria, where luxury meets leisure in a picturesque estate featuring a private beach, marina, yachting club, and communal areas like a refreshing pool. The nearby surroundings offer sandy paradises like Playa del Hornillo and Playa del Cometa, both accessible within a leisurely stroll. Water enthusiasts can explore snorkelling and jet skiing at nearby water sports centres, with the added bonus of taking boat trips from the charming marina.

Just 7 km away lies the bustling town of Maspalomas, a delightful blend of traditional charm and modern amenities. At its heart stands the iconic Maspalomas Lighthouse, a historic beacon along the stunning coastline. The town captivates with picturesque streets, local cuisine, and a lively atmosphere. The lighthouse, perched majestically, offers breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean, making it a must-visit for both history buffs and those seeking panoramic views.

For a livelier atmosphere, venture 8 km to Playa del Ingles, renowned for its expansive 3 km sandy beach. This vibrant resort town is a bustling hub of entertainment and nightlife. Playa del Ingles boasts a lively scene with a myriad of clubs, bars, and entertainment venues. During the day, the beach becomes a haven for sun-worshippers and water sports enthusiasts, providing endless opportunities for seaside fun.

Nature lovers can escape to the mesmerising Maspalomas Dunes, a natural wonder stretching across 1000 acres. These protected sand dunes create a unique and picturesque landscape, inviting visitors to explore the serene surroundings. Long coastal walks unveil the beauty of this vast nature reserve, where the golden sands meet the azure waters of the Atlantic, creating a tranquil oasis away from the bustling resorts.

In conclusion, a holiday in the south of Gran Canaria offers a perfect blend of luxury, coastal beauty, and vibrant town experiences. Whether exploring charming Maspalomas, diving into the lively atmosphere of Playa del Ingles, or immersing in the serene nature of Maspalomas Dunes, every moment promises to be unforgettable in this captivating island getaway.
