

Les Hirondelles

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 16

Overview

Sit back in the outdoor hot tub or perhaps beside the poolside bar as you gaze out towards the beautiful Lot landscapes around you. Not far from the Dordogne border, Les Hirondelles exudes historic character alongside contemporary elegance and is a fine family home for a restful holiday with many superb features.

This stunning house is set within 14 acres and sleeps up to 16 guests with ample space to spread out and truly relax. It was refurbished in 2023 with a brand new extension and cinema room added. Back to the original part of the house, guests can expect traditional design and high standards across the vast lounge with a 80" TV, a gorgeous kitchen-diner and three double bedrooms with super king-size double beds. The master bedroom is especially attractive with its modern en suite bathroom and windows opening out to the terrace with such pretty vistas.

Discover two further double bedrooms, each one with an en suite shower room, in the traditional extension, then the striking new ground floor development with an indoor jacuzzi, sauna, cinema lounge and pool table alongside the final two bedrooms, one master en suite double and a unique quad room with four double beds in stylish alcoves.

Les Hirondelles' seamless blend of old and new is certainly impressive, as are the beautiful grounds with a flower-filled garden, the second jacuzzi (this one outdoors), a picture-perfect veranda for tranquil breakfasts, stone statues, a fountain and the idyllic swimming pool overlooking rural scenery. When the sun is a little too much, seek shade in the poolside lounge with its sofas, bar, sink and fridge.

The local village, 2.5km away, is tiny yet is home to an excellent restaurant, performing arts centre and an outdoor cinema – it hosts a much-loved film festival in August! Just a little further, within a 5km drive, are the shops, restaurants and weekly Sunday morning market of characterful Cazals. Discover hiking trails, mountain biking and fishing opportunities nearby alongside summer watersports at Lac Vert, just 10 minutes away by car.

Canoeing or kayaking along the Dordogne River is also a must, perhaps near Domme, one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages' reached within half an hour. Experience the Périgord Noir's finest gastronomy in Sarlat-la-Canéda, around 40km by car, and visit some of the region's iconic grand châteaux. Don't miss the Jardins de Marqueyssac, especially in the summer when you can often explore in the coolness of the evening.

Wine-lovers note that some of the world's best Malbecs are produced in Cahors' vineyards, a handsome medieval town half an hour away, also home to Le Pont Valentré, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Another one of France's most popular destinations is the pilgrim's town of Rocamadour, not far from the amazing caves at Gouffre de Padirac, yet another fantastic day out in this wonderful region of France.

There is a small supermarket, other shops (including a bakery), restaurants and a Sunday morning market in Cazals (5km), a good base for hiking trails, mountain biking routes and a fishing lake with picnic areas and pedal boats in the height of the summer. Heading south, Catus' Lac Vert (10km) offers seasonal activities such as canoeing/kayaking, pedal boats and an inflatable waterpark.

Of course, there are further canoeing/kayaking opportunities along the Dordogne River near Domme (28km) alongside summer boat trips from La Roque-Gageac (31km). Another must-visit in the Dordogne is Sarlat-la-Canéda (40km), known for its exquisite architecture, atmospheric markets and gastronomic restaurants showcasing the finest cuisine of the Périgord Noir.

Back in the Lot department, venture to the incredible pilgrim's town of Rocamadour (51km) perhaps combined with a trip to the underground caves at the fascinating Gouffre de Padirac (72km). Meanwhile, Saint-Cirq-Lapopie (54km) is another fine day out, classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages' and a place which has attracted artists over the years thanks to its rich heritage and immense charm.
