

Maison Du Noyer

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 6

Overview

At the crossroads of the Lot and Dordogne departments lies a beautifully renovated holiday home known as Maison Du Noyer, offering a serene escape for 6 adults and one child. Tucked away in a green landscape, this spacious villa boasts a plethora of amenities, making it the perfect retreat for nature lovers seeking countryside and relaxation.

Maison Du Noyer offers a harmonious blend of rustic charm and modern comfort. The interior sprawls across 160m², featuring a delightful open-plan layout on the ground floor. The kitchen exudes timeless elegance with its stone walls and century-old beams, complemented by state-of-the-art appliances that ensure convenience without compromising on authenticity. Adjacent to the kitchen, the living room beckons with its cosy ambiance, illuminated by natural light streaming in through generous windows. Whether dining indoors or alfresco on the terrace, guests can savour the joys of communal meals surrounded by the beauty of nature.

The villa hosts three inviting double bedrooms, which share two stylish bathrooms complete with Italian showers and separate toilets. Ascend the wooden stairs from the living room to discover a spacious hall leading to the third sleeping area, furnished with a comfortable sofa bed - perfectly child-sized!

Outside, the villa unfolds into a verdant oasis spanning 5000m², where guests can bask in the splendour of the countryside. A heated private pool beckons for refreshing dips, while a covered terrace offers respite from the sun and provides a picturesque backdrop for outdoor dining. Entertainment abounds with amenities like table tennis and an outdoor kitchen equipped with a barbecue, ideal for leisurely gatherings and culinary adventures amidst the beauty of nature.

For added convenience, Maison Du Noyer offers an array of thoughtful amenities, including Wi-Fi access, heating, and the convenience of having beds made upon arrival. Plus, furry friends are welcome to join in on the holiday fun, ensuring that every member of the family can partake in the joy of this enchanting retreat.

Not forgetting the lovely Dordogne river where you can picnic on a beach, go for long walks or hire canoes. Follow the river and discover idyllic villages such as Domme, La Roque Gageac and Castelnaud-la-Chapelle. Another must is the glorious medieval town of Sarlat to the north, with its vibrant Saturday morning market and amazing restaurants often specialising in Foie Gras or truffles.

The whole area is a true haven for nature and sport lovers alike from horse riding and tennis to mountain-biking and golf, not to mention the number of hiking and fishing opportunities in the area. In essence, Maison Du Noyer is the epitome of a quintessential countryside getaway, where every moment is imbued with the serenity and charm of rural France.

Location & Local Information

Situated in the idyllic countryside at the convergence of the Lot and Dordogne departments, Maison Du Noyer enjoys a prime location that beckons holidaymakers seeking both serenity and adventure. Tucked away in a quiet green area, this charming retreat offers a perfect vantage point for exploring the treasures of the Périgord region while revelling in the beautiful surroundings of rural life.

Just a stone's throw away lies the historic town of Sarlat, a cultural gem renowned for its well-preserved mediaeval architecture and vibrant market scene. Here, visitors can stroll along cobblestone streets lined with quaint shops and artisanal boutiques, indulging in the rich flavours of local delicacies and soaking in the ambiance of bygone eras.

For those with a penchant for history, the Dordogne region boasts an abundance of (pre)historic sites that offer a glimpse into the fascinating past of humanity. From the breathtaking prehistoric cave paintings of Lascaux to the imposing fortress of Château de Beynac, history buffs are sure to be captivated by the region's storied heritage.

Nature enthusiasts will find themselves in paradise amidst the lush landscapes and scenic vistas that abound in the surrounding area. Whether embarking on leisurely hikes through verdant forests, kayaking along the meandering rivers, or simply basking in the splendour of the countryside, there's no shortage of outdoor adventures to be had.

Food and wine aficionados will delight in the gastronomic delights that await around every corner. From world-class vineyards producing exquisite wines to rustic farm-to-table restaurants serving up delectable regional cuisine, the Périgord region is a veritable paradise for epicureans.

For those seeking relaxation and rejuvenation, the villa's proximity to charming villages and picturesque countryside offers the perfect backdrop for unwinding and reconnecting with nature. Whether enjoying a leisurely picnic amidst rolling hills or simply basking in the warm waters of the villa's private pool, guests are sure to find moments of bliss and contentment in this enchanting corner of France.

In essence, Maison Du Noyer's location offers the best of both worlds: a serene retreat amidst the beauty of nature, with easy access to a wealth of cultural, culinary, and outdoor experiences that promise to create memories to last a lifetime.
