

Lis De La Paix

Region: Provence-Alpes Sleeps: 6

Overview

On the edge of a small village, Lis de la Paix is a welcoming 3-bedroom villa with a heated swimming pool in an ideal location for your holiday in Provence.

You will feel immediately at home as you step inside and admire the light-filled lounge and dining area with its sofas, chess table, book corner and large doors sliding open to the terrace and swimming pool. The modern kitchen is well-equipped including three different ways to make coffee, no doubt to be enjoyed on the attractive outdoor lounge.

The summer room is another lovely spot for peaceful meals with family or friends.

A high-ceilinged ground-floor bedroom awaits with a queen-size double bed, garden view and en suite shower room. Upstairs there are two further doubles sharing a family bathroom alongside a delightful office.

The private garden wraps around the house and features a heated swimming pool as well as a poolside terrace for barbecues and lounging in the southern French sun. Next to the pool is a little play area for youngsters with a swing, slide and ping-pong table.

Passing a neighbouring vineyard and shady trees, stroll into the local village (part of the route may be unlit and without pavements) with its boulangerie, butchers and a small handful of places to eat. A short drive or cycle ride in the other direction is Coustellet, handy for supermarkets, artisan food shops and a charming Sunday morning Farmer's market.

On the edge of the Luberon, this is an great setting for visiting the many perched villages including Oppède le Vieux and Ménerbes, both within a 10-minute drive. As you explore the Luberon, look out for gastronomic restaurants, village markets and dreamy landscapes of lavender fields, orchards, forests and vineyards – there are of course ample wine-tasting opportunities too.

L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue is another nearby highlight of Provence, famed for its antique stores, waterways, characterful cafes and Sunday morning brocante. Canoe or kayak along the Sorgue near Fontaine-de-Vaucluse, a paradise for outdoor enthusiasts, or spend time visiting the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Avignon, reached in less than 45 minutes by car.

Location & Local Information

In a calm setting on the edge of a small Provençal village, Lis de la Paix enjoys an ideal base for visiting the many gems of Provence, perfectly located between L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue (12km) and the landscapes of the Luberon, around 33km from historic Avignon.

Passing vineyards, you can walk along the country lane (without pavement and unlit at times) to the local village with its bakery, butchers and two restaurants (check opening days). The older part of the village is a little further, home to a church, belltower and charming houses alongside a football field and playground.

It's an attractive village for wandering around soaking up the authenticity of Provence. In the other direction, there are further amenities in Coustellet (2.5km) including some good food shops, supermarkets and a popular Sunday morning Farmer's market. Food lovers note Musée de l'Huile d'Olive (2.5km) is a good place to try local olive oil whilst there are ample wine-tasting opportunities across the Luberon and Rhône valley.

Heading into the Luberon, visit some of the region's iconic perched villages including Oppède le Vieux (4km), Ménerbes (7km) and Gordes (11km), all loved for their historic charm and atmosphere. As you explore the dreamy Provençal landscapes of the Luberon, come across gastronomic restaurants, weekly village markets and beautiful walks passing orchards, vineyards, lavender fields and forests.

L'Isle-sur-la-Sorgue's Sunday morning brocante is another highlight of Provence – it's a joy to potter around this characterful town at any time of week with its antique stores, pretty cafes and riverside restaurants. The beauty of Fontaine-de-Vaucluse (13km) also awaits or discover the scenery as you canoe or kayak along the Sorgue.

Head to the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Avignon (33km) or spend the day visiting the olive groves, limestone valleys, picture-perfect villages and artistic towns of Les Alpilles with countryside that inspired the likes of Van Gogh - Saint-Rémy-de-Provence (30km) and Les Baux-de-Provence (40km) are both lovely days out.
