

Pierrepont House

Region: Bath Sleeps: 6

Overview

Pierrepont House offers a historic gem nestled in the heart of Bath. Originally constructed in 1748 by the esteemed architect John Wood the Elder, Pierrepont House boasts a rich heritage and a prime location, making it the ideal retreat for those seeking a blend of luxury and history.

Situated on the picturesque Pierrepont Place, a tranquil cobbled street just moments away from Bath Abbey, the Roman Baths, and the city's bustling high street, Pierrepont House offers guests a peaceful sanctuary amidst the vibrant city centre. Despite its central location, the serene ambience of Pierrepont Place ensures a restful stay for all visitors.

Step inside Pierrepont House and be captivated by its interiors, where timeless charm meets modern luxury. Tastefully renovated to preserve its historic character, the house exudes an air of opulence and sophistication at every turn. The fully equipped kitchen and dining room invite culinary adventures, boasting modern amenities seamlessly integrated with period features. In the character-filled living room, guests can unwind in style amidst elegant furnishings and bespoke décor, basking in the warmth of the roaring fireplace.

The three spectacular bedrooms, each a sanctuary of comfort and refinement, offer a serene retreat after a day of exploration. Adorned with elegant en-suites featuring magnificent round bathtubs, every detail has been meticulously crafted to ensure the utmost comfort and indulgence. Whether soaking in the tub or lounging in the sumptuous surroundings, guests are enveloped in an atmosphere of pure luxury. From the living spaces' grandeur to the bedrooms' exquisite details, Pierrepont House truly epitomizes timeless elegance and sophistication.

Steeped in history, Pierrepont House is comprised of numbers 1-5 Pierrepont Place, each with its own story to tell. Number 1, known as "Linley House," was commissioned by Sir Thomas Linley for his daughters, musically gifted beauties immortalized in Gainsborough's portraits. Rumours of clandestine meetings between their maid and Admiral Lord Nelson add intrigue to the house's past, with whispers of secret liaisons in the shared garden.

For those seeking a touch of al fresco relaxation, Pierrepont House features a rooftop terrace, perfect for unwinding amidst the city skyline.

Whether exploring Bath's iconic landmarks or simply indulging in a moment of serenity, Pierrepont House invites you to experience the allure of its historic charm and unparalleled hospitality. Discover the magic of Bath from the comfort of this enchanting retreat, where history and luxury intertwine to create an unforgettable getaway.

What we love

- Step into 1748 charm with tasteful renovations, opulent interiors, and fireplaces
- Indulge in fully equipped kitchens, character-filled lounges, and three bedrooms with elegant en-suites featuring magnificent round bathtubs
- Explore Bath effortlessly – a stone's throw from the Abbey, Roman Baths, and the city's vibrant high street

What you should know...

- There is a rooftop terrace however we kindly ask guests to keep the noise down in the evenings and children should always be supervised
- The house is a four minute walk from the train, bus and coach station. We are two minutes' walk from a taxi rank
- You have exclusive access to all five floors of the house and there are a couple of sets of keys to let you come and go as you please
- The street outside the house is a no parking zone (the lack of yellow lines is apparently due to the cobbles being grade 1 listed!). There is an NCP car park at the end of our road
