

Paragon House

Region: Bath Sleeps: 1 - 14

Overview

Nestled along the iconic Paragon Street in Bath, Paragon House stands as a majestic testament to Georgian elegance and contemporary comfort. From the moment you step through its doors, you are enveloped in an atmosphere of tranquility and sophistication, where every corner whispers tales of its rich history and timeless allure.

Paragon House is a haven for those seeking both space and style, with six spacious bedrooms and spread across five meticulously designed floors. Whether you are planning a family reunion, a getaway with friends, or a corporate retreat, this immaculately restored townhouse offers the perfect setting for memorable moments and cherished gatherings.

As you enter through the historic threshold of The Paragon, believed to have ancient Roman origins, you are greeted by a welcoming entry hall adorned with polished wooden floorboards, setting the tone for the luxury that awaits within. Ascend the traditional staircase at the heart of the home, leading you to discover each carefully curated space.

The lower ground floor unveils a striking open-plan kitchen and dining area, where culinary adventures await amidst modern amenities and a beautifully crafted hardwood table, ideal for convivial meals and late-night conversations. On the ground floor, a bright and airy twin bedroom awaits, along with a rejuvenating shower room, offering both comfort and convenience.

The first floor reveals a spacious living room, the beating heart of Paragon House, adorned with plush sofas and ample space for relaxation or entertainment. Venture further to the second floor, where a shared bathroom beckons with its claw-footed tub and invigorating rain shower, providing a sanctuary for relaxation after a day of exploration.

Continuing upwards, the third floor unveils three more inviting bedrooms, each offering a serene retreat with abundant natural light and tasteful furnishings. And for moments of blissful reprieve, a small bathroom with a shower over the bath awaits at the top of the home, completing this sumptuous sanctuary.

Outside, the tranquil back garden offers a serene escape, inviting you to unwind amidst the beauty of nature. And with Paragon House's prime location, Bath's top attractions, dining establishments, and boutique shops are mere minutes away, ensuring every moment is filled with the charm and allure of this historic city.

What we love

- The house is located on one of Bath's most famous streets - The Paragon!
- Spread across five floors, this spacious retreat offers plenty of space for large families, friend groups or corporate getaways
- With our townhouse as your base, you're just a stone's throw away from Bath's most renowned attractions - you'll easily be able to explore on foot

What you should know...

- Sadly, we do not provide parking – if coming by car we recommend parking at Charlotte Streetcar park, or Southgate Car park which has electric charging points, or using the Lansdown Park & Ride scheme
- Please note that of the 11 beds in the property, two are smaller day beds located within the twin rooms on the ground floor and the third floor - both of these rooms sleep three people
- Unfortunately, the pizza oven & AGA are out of order so will not be in use during your stay
