

Villa Quagliotto

Region: Le Marche Sleeps: 16

Overview

Villa Quagliotto is an expansive and elegant residence spread across three floors, featuring a captivating historic tower. Positioned amidst the picturesque backdrop of rolling hills and olive groves, this villa serves as an ideal retreat for exploring nearby villages, walking routes, and indulging in beach days.

The focal point of the home is the ground floor's spacious living area, offering panoramic views of the garden. Furnished with comfortable sofas, armchairs, and a Smart TV, the room exudes a bright and modern ambiance. A large dining table accommodating 12 people takes centre stage, surrounded by decorative statues, artwork, and colourful rugs. The adjacent kitchen, professionally equipped, ensures convenience for preparing meals and snacks for your group.

Three inviting bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms are located on this level, featuring warm and welcoming decor. For accessibility, one of the en-suite bathrooms and the Guest WC are designed to cater to elderly or disabled guests. An additional family bathroom completes this floor.

Ascending to the upper level, two family-friendly bedrooms are revealed, ideal for those with young children. One room boasts a double bed and a bunk bed, while the other features a double bed and a double sofa bed, each accompanied by en-suite shower rooms. A wooden staircase leads to the enchanting tower area, housing a double bedroom, a shower room, and a study.

Outside, the vast enclosed garden beckons with a private swimming pool as its centrepiece. Ample space invites al-fresco dining, sunbathing, and relaxation, complemented by a covered lounge area for reading or leisurely moments.

Just 5km away, the charming town of Filottrano offers shopping and dining options, while nearby Osimo, a gorgeous hill town 13km away, beckons with historic sites and museums. With its strategic location, Villa Quagliotto provides a perfect blend of luxury, comfort, and exploration for an unforgettable Italian holiday.
