Region: Dubrovnik Riviera Sleeps: 6

Overview

Nestled along the ruggedly beautiful Croatian Dalmatian coast, Villa Alesso is a serene retreat, beckoning travellers seeking solace amidst nature's embrace. Tucked away on the outskirts of the Neretva Valley, a mere seven-minute drive from the sandy shores of Duba and Delta beaches, this haven offers a tranquil sanctuary far removed from the clamour of urban life, yet still within reach of coastal delights. With the acclaimed Rizman Winery just a five-minute jaunt away, oenophiles will find themselves in vinous heaven, while adventure seekers can revel in the nearby Neretva River delta, a windsurfing and kitesurfing mecca.

As you step into Villa Alesso, prepare to be ensnared by its eclectic charm and global allure. The interiors are a testament to the owners' wanderlust, adorned with treasures from distant lands, particularly India and Morocco. The kitchen, a spacious expanse steeped in history, once served as the beating heart of the village, where locals congregated to craft bread and brew plum brandy. Retaining its rustic charm, the kitchen now welcomes guests to partake in culinary adventures amidst a backdrop of antique charm.

Ascending to the first floor, a charming double room awaits, its bay window framing vistas of the verdant forest beyond. Original features blend seamlessly with exotic accents, such as a door repurposed as a headboard and hay-made lights sourced from Marrakech. Meanwhile, the ground floor master bedroom offers respite with its twin double beds and direct access to the patio, where guests can linger amidst the fragrant breeze.

Yet, it is the attic bedroom that truly captivates, a sanctuary of Parisian chic infused with Oriental allure. Antique furnishings and a freestanding bath evoke a sense of timeless elegance, while a hanging swing beckons guests to while away the hours amidst panoramic views of olive groves and distant hills.

Venturing outdoors, the villa unveils its pièce de résistance—a luxurious expanse designed for indulgence and relaxation. Nestled amidst natural splendour, the saltwater infinity pool casts a beguiling turquoise hue, inviting guests to immerse themselves in its tranquil waters. Sun-dappled terraces provide ample space for lounging and al fresco dining, offering a seamless fusion of serenity and sophistication.

Whether seeking adventure or repose, Villa Alesso promises an enchanting escape, where every moment is suffused with the magic of discovery and rejuvenation.
