Region: Santorini Sleeps: 2

Overview

Enjoying an enviable location on the slopes beneath the Monastery of Profitis Ilias in Pyrgos, Santorini, Villa Angelos emerges as a haven of serenity and elegance amidst the island's bustling landscape. As one of the four exclusive units within the private grounds of a sprawling terraced estate, it offers a retreat for those seeking solace and a taste of Santorini from a lofty vantage point.

Stepping inside, guests are greeted by an expanse of seamless modernity and Cycladic charm. The interior seamlessly blends sleek contemporary design with traditional elements, casting a spell of tranquillity upon its guests. The open-plan layout encompasses the lounge, dining, and kitchen spaces, bathed in natural light that filters through the expansive windows. Here, every corner exudes sophistication, with top-tier furnishings and state-of-the-art amenities, ensuring a luxurious stay for up to two guests.

Venturing into the sanctuary of the bedroom, a king-size haven awaits, adorned with an anatomic mattress and a pillow menu for bespoke comfort. The adjoining double bathroom boasts a walk-in rain shower and double washbasin, adorned with luxury bath products and plush robes & slippers, promising indulgent moments of pampering and rejuvenation.

The heart of Villa Angelos lies in its outdoor expanse, where the enchantment of Santorini unfolds before your eyes. Ascending the external steps through the herb garden slopes, you're welcomed by a private terrace overlooking the azure sea. A stone-built heated pool jacuzzi beckons for moments of leisure, while the outdoor lounge and dining area invite alfresco dining against the backdrop of the Aegean horizon. Bean-bag loungers offer respite for sun-soaked siestas, sheltered beneath the billowing canopy of a sail sunshade.

As you soak in the tranquillity of Villa Angelos, don't miss the opportunity to explore the nearby Profitis Ilias Monastery, perched atop the island's highest peak. Wander through its serene gardens, visit the chapel, and browse through the small gift shop offering local crafts, supporting the cloistered monks who call this mountaintop retreat their home. And don't forget to savour the unparalleled panoramic views of Santorini, which paint a picture of beauty that lingers in the soul.

Location & Local Information

Perched majestically on the slopes beneath the Monastery of Profitis Ilias in Pyrgos, Santorini, Villa Angelos enjoys a prime location that offers the best of both worlds – tranquillity and accessibility. Picture waking up to the gentle breeze caressing your skin as you take in the panoramic views of the Aegean Sea stretching out before you, the distant islands beckoning with their allure.

Venture out from the villa, and you'll find yourself amidst a treasure trove of attractions and amenities waiting to be explored. Just a stone's throw away lies the charming village of Pyrgos, renowned for its winding alleys and whitewashed houses adorned with vibrant bougainvillea. Lose yourself in its labyrinthine streets, stumbling upon hidden gems like quaint cafes and local artisan shops.

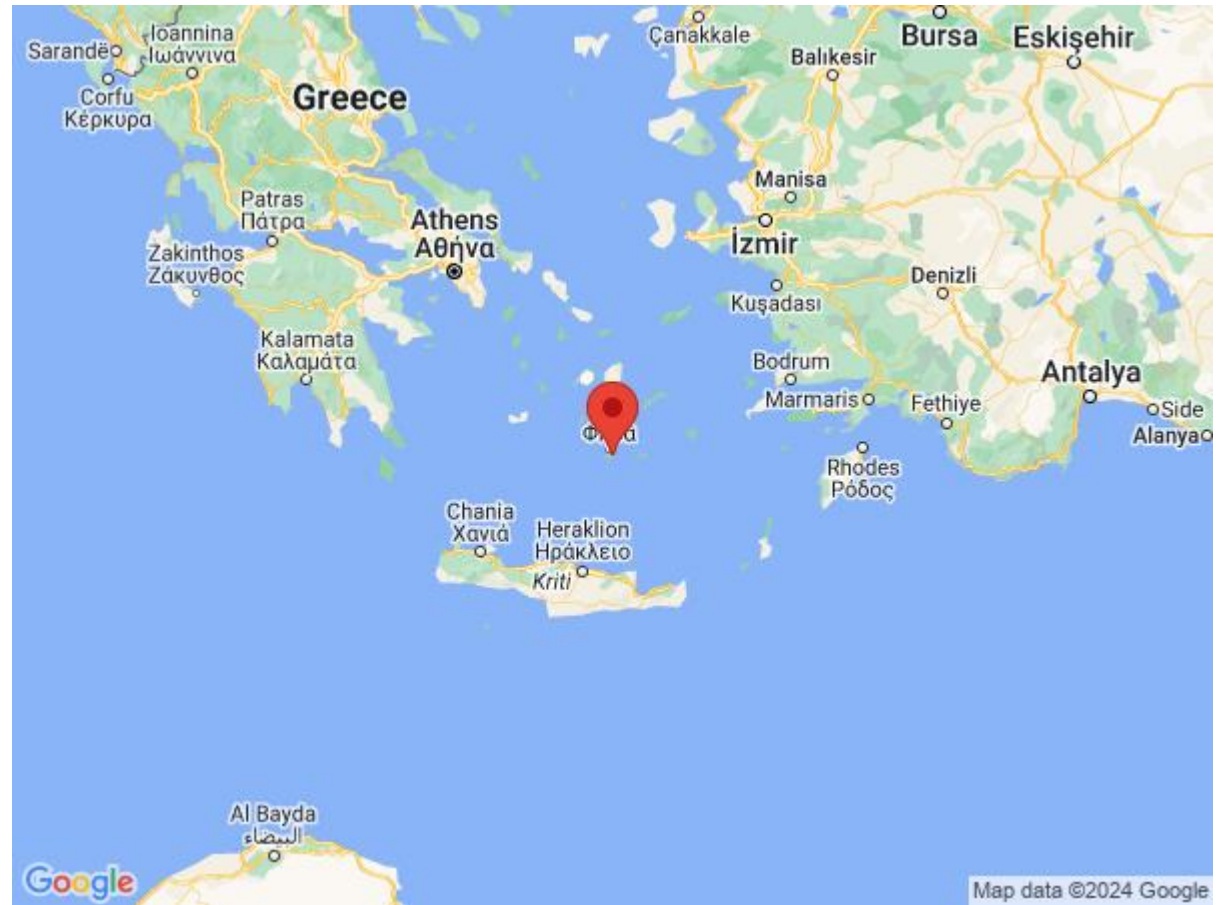

For history enthusiasts, a visit to the nearby Monastery of Profitis Ilias is a must. Perched at the island's highest point, this centuries-old monastery offers not only spiritual solace but also breathtaking vistas of Santorini's rugged landscape. Wander through its gardens, visit the chapel, and perhaps even pick up some handcrafted souvenirs from the monastery's gift shop, supporting the cloistered monks who call this sacred place home.

As you explore further afield, discover the rich tapestry of Santorini's attractions, from the iconic blue-domed churches of Oia to the bustling streets of Fira, where boutiques and restaurants beckon with their offerings. Embark on a wine-tasting adventure in the island's renowned vineyards, sampling the distinctive flavours of Assyrtiko and Nykteri wines while soaking in the Mediterranean sun.

And when it's time to unwind, return to the sanctuary of Villa Angelos, where the jacuzzi pool awaits to soothe your senses, and the terrace offers a front-row seat to nature's splendour. Whether you're seeking adventure or relaxation, culture or cuisine, Santorini has something for everyone – and Villa Angelos is the perfect base from which to experience it all.
