

Medlar House

Region: Devon Sleeps: 15 - 19

Overview

Escape to the enchanting Medlar House, nestled near Crediton in Devon, for an unforgettable holiday experience. With enough space to accommodate up to nineteen guests, Medlar House promises a perfect retreat for groups of friends or families seeking relaxation and adventure in equal measure.

Inside Medlar House, you'll find a perfect blend of modern comfort and classic charm. Recently renovated, the kitchen features state-of-the-art amenities, including two pyrolytic electric ovens and a wine cooler, enhancing the existing three fridges, gas hob, and four-oven Aga. Gather in the spacious sitting room around the crackling log burner for cosy evenings in, or head to the expansive game room, equipped with air hockey, a pool table, and darts.

The sleeping accommodation is spread over six elegant bedrooms made up of a mix of singles and doubles many with additional sofa beds to accommodate large groups. Throw open the windows and listen to the morning birdsong of your idyllic surroundings. With multiple bathrooms throughout the house, including an en suite in the master bedroom, convenience is always assured, and all linens are included for your convenience.

Step into the sprawling landscaped garden, where an array of outdoor amenities awaits. From the covered party area boasting a pizza oven and a large winter/summer fire pit to the inviting outdoor swimming pool accompanied by a hammock deck and a wood-fired Scandinavian hot tub, every moment at Medlar House is thoughtfully designed for ultimate relaxation. Children of all ages will love the floodlit table tennis and the charming, fenced play area complete with a Wendy house and outdoor play kitchen.

With ample parking available for up to eight cars, Medlar House provides the perfect base for exploring the wonders of Devon. Whether you seek relaxation or adventure, Medlar House guarantees an idyllic holiday experience filled with cherished memories and shared moments.

Location & Local Information

Set in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty the county of Devon is a popular tourist spot, an area known for its rolling dales, protected heathlands and breath-taking coastline, whilst being in easy reach of both Dartmoor and Exmouth National Park.

Beyond the comforts of Medlar House, a traditional Devon farming village beckons, just a short stroll away. Explore the village's old church and two traditional English country pubs, including the esteemed Ring of Bells pub, renowned for its culinary delights and accolades such as gastropub of the year Southwest.

The bustling city of Exeter is just a thirty-minute drive away with plenty of places to explore offering clay shooting, Segway rides and a range of outdoor activities. Take a trip to Exeter Cathedral to visit the clandestine corners and amazing architecture. You can book a guided tour to learn more about the historic beauty of the building or go at your own pace. If you are looking for some further culture whilst in the city then there are a range of museums to choose from, a favourite being the Royal Albert Memorial Museum and Art Gallery.

Known as the southern gateway to Exmoor, the lovely market town of Dulverton is perfectly placed to explore the beauty of the Exmoor National Park, under an hour away. The town boasts its own range of local art galleries, antique stores and cafes with tea and cakes aplenty, with endless walks and routes for all abilities that can be explored on foot, by bike or even on horseback. Whilst there why not take the circular route from Dulverton to the ancient clapper bridge of the Tarr Steps, a stunning stroll through beautiful woodland and picturesque scenery.
