

Maison Vue Mer

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 10

Overview

Admire the breathtaking vistas of the distant Mediterranean and Côte d'Azur hinterland from this attractive villa near the perched village of Tourrettes-sur-Loup, less than half an hour from the French Riviera.

The view is best enjoyed from the idyllic poolside terrace with its sun loungers, pool house and stone barbecue. Or appreciate the scenery from one of the upper terraces near the house, the perfect place for a morning coffee as the world wakes up around you. The verdant surroundings are glorious with Mediterranean plants and trees creating such a restful ambience. As the day ends, gather with family and friends with a glass of Côtes de Provence and gaze out to the everchanging sky.

Having undergone a recent renovation, the interiors are bright and comfortable with a spacious lounge benefitting from that sea view as well as a modern kitchen-diner. There is also a separate TV lounge (with sofa-bed) alongside five double bedrooms (two of which can be made up as twins), alongside four bath/shower rooms (two en suite).

Fall in love with the perched village of Tourrettes-sur-Loup with its winding cobbled lanes, vaulted archways, pretty little cafes, restaurants and art studios. Soak up the artistic ambience of Vence and St Paul de Vence, just a little further afield, and visit the contemporary art exhibitions and Joan Miró sculpture garden at the highly regarded Fondation Maeght.

Meanwhile, this region is a paradise for hiking enthusiasts across the landscapes of the Gorges du Loup or venture towards Cap d'Antibes for incredible coastal walking.

In less than half an hour you could be strolling along Cagnes-sur-Mer's seaside promenade or drive a little further to the museums and art galleries of Nice, the charming lanes and sandy beach of Villefranche-sur-Mer, the chic beachside restaurants of Juan-les-Pins or the palm-fringed shores of Cannes, all wonderful experiences along the French Riviera.
