

Villa Gavros

Region: Chania Sleeps: 5

Overview

Nestled amidst the serene village of Sternes, just a leisurely five-minute drive from Chania Airport, lies the resplendent Villa Gavros, an embodiment of tranquillity and contemporary elegance. A recent gem of renovation, this two-level abode seamlessly blends traditional elements of wood and stone with sleek modern decor, promising an unforgettable retreat for the discerning traveller.

Stepping inside, this is a unique villa combining an old traditional house with modern decorations. The interiors exude warmth and sophistication, boasting two cosy bedrooms adorned with sumptuous double beds, ensuring restful nights. With three meticulously designed bathrooms, including two ensembles, every indulgence is catered for. The living room, adorned with a plush sofa bed, invites you to unwind in style, while the fully equipped kitchen beckons culinary adventures.

As daylight dances through expansive windows, offering panoramic vistas of both sea and mountain, the dining room becomes a haven for savouring meals amidst unparalleled natural beauty. With every modern convenience at your fingertips, from state-of-the-art electrical devices to thoughtful amenities, your comfort is paramount.

Yet, the true allure of Villa Gavros lies beyond its walls. Step outside, and you are enveloped in a sanctuary of serenity. A sprawling terrace, adorned with captivating sea views, becomes the perfect setting for al fresco dining or simply savouring a morning coffee. Here, under the Grecian sun, time seems to stand still.

The pièce de résistance undoubtedly lies in the enticing swimming pool, a shimmering oasis inviting you to cool off from the Mediterranean sun. Available year-round, and even heated upon request for a truly indulgent experience, it promises endless hours of relaxation and rejuvenation.

Surrounded by lush gardens, Villa Gavros offers a sanctuary for the soul, where the stresses of modern life melt away amidst the gentle rustle of leaves and the harmonious symphony of nature. Whether seeking solitude or shared moments with loved ones, this villa is a haven of privacy and tranquillity.
