

Villa Palio

Region: Chania Sleeps: 2 - 6

Overview

Villa Palio is nestled in the serene heart of Gerani, within the picturesque municipality of Platanias, Chania. This tranquil haven is cocooned by groves of ancient olive and orange trees, painting a scene of rustic charm and tranquillity. Whether you are seeking respite from the hustle and bustle or eager to embark on outdoor adventures, this village is the perfect base for your holiday escapades.

Step inside this exclusive retreat, where modern comforts seamlessly intertwine with the timeless allure of traditional architecture. Spread gracefully across a single level, Villa Palio beckons with its three inviting bedrooms, two adorned with snug double beds and the third boasting two cosy singles. A fully equipped kitchen awaits your culinary exploits, while two spacious living areas provide ample room for relaxation and entertainment, complete with a flat satellite TV to catch up on your favourite shows. Freshen up in the two-family bathrooms, each equipped with a refreshing shower, and a convenient additional WC.

As sunlight streams through the windows, the villa exudes a warm, welcoming glow, its stone walls promising respite from the summer heat and cosy comfort during the cooler months.

Villa Palio also boasts an outdoor oasis. The pièce de résistance is the private swimming pool, stretching an impressive eleven metres and boasting rejuvenating hydro-massage jets in two strategic points. Little ones can splash and play in their own dedicated kiddie pool. Surrounding the villa, a meticulously manicured garden awaits, bursting with vibrant blooms, fragrant herbs, and native flora.

But the true gem of the outdoor space lies in the barbecue corner, a gastronomic haven for culinary enthusiasts. Here, a wood-fired oven stands ready to bake pizzas to perfection, while a three-burner gas stove beckons for sizzling stir-fries. Embark on a culinary adventure with an Argentine-style barbecue grill or simply rinse off your culinary tools in the convenient sink.

With its blend of modern convenience and timeless charm, Villa Palio invites you to savour the essence of Greek hospitality in an idyllic setting, promising cherished memories and unforgettable moments with loved ones.
