Location & Local Information

Welcome to Veli Iz, a hidden gem nestled on the island of Iz, Croatia. Here, time slows down as you immerse yourself in the beauty of untouched landscapes and rich cultural heritage. The harbour is a great place to watch the boats come in and out. There are also a few shops and restaurants, but it is a small town, so check if they are open before going!

Explore charming stone streets adorned with Mediterranean flora, leading to quaint cafes and local markets brimming with fresh produce. Embark on scenic hikes to discover panoramic views of the Adriatic Sea, or venture into crystal-clear waters for a day of snorkelling or sailing. Indulge in authentic island cuisine at family-run tavernas, where each dish is a celebration of local flavours. Experience the magic of Veli Iz, where every moment is a treasure waiting to be discovered.

What we love

- We love the proximity to the sea from Villa Ensley, it really is on your doorstep!
- The lavender around the pool gives the villa a relaxing feel.
- The wine cellar is a real plus!

What you should know...

- The pool is not fenced, so please be mindful when children are running around.
- It is excellent being so close to the sea, but remember, sea urchins love the clean Adriatic water, so please be careful!
- A tennis court less than 500m from the villa can be rented for a fee, and reservation is required.
