

Chateau Le Duc

Region: Dordogne Sleeps: 34

Overview

In the heart of Perigord Vert in the Dordogne, lies the magnificent 19th Century Chateau Le Duc and adjacent annexe. Built in 1840, it has recently been refurbished to the highest standard of luxury. Each room has been carefully decorated with traditional colours and wallpaper from Farrow and Ball, and furnished with antiques and works of art. All bathrooms are of the highest standard, using brands such as Lefroy Brooks and Sottini and bed linen and towels from Frette. There are 16 bedrooms across both the Chateau and the adjacent annexe for up to 34 guests.

Chateau Le Duc is set in 12 acres of beautifully kept gardens, complete with fruit orchards, a swimming pool and badminton court. Breakfast, afternoon tea and dinner can be taken on the terrace overlooking the picturesque local village, or alternatively a candle lit dinner can be enjoyed in the dining room.

An historic landmark in French history, the chateau was once the palatial home of a duke who served under Napoleon and it was given to him as a token of his appreciation for his dedication to France. His influence on French history is evident in the numerous statues and landmarks named after him in France.

What Oliver loves...

- The chateau was originally owned by one of Napoleon's generals and local historians have confirmed Napoleon stayed in the chateau!
- Some of the en-suite bathrooms are as big as the bedrooms!
- Find time to pop to Segur Le Chateau and Brantome, seriously beautiful hidden gems which are perfect for lazy lunches overlooking the Dordogne.
- Has a spectacular aristocratic interior and exterior, stay in grand splendour and feel like royalty!
- Large, carefully manicured gardens perfect for a weddings

What you should know...

- The kitchen, comparative to the size of the chateau, is a little small, however it has catered for 200 before
- The 16 bedrooms are spread across the Chateau and the adjacent annexe. See the Features tabs for full details.
